

A M I R M O H T A S H E M I

Iznik Jug

Ottoman Turkey, second half of the 16th century

Ceramic decorated with underglaze polychrome

22.2cm high

Stock no.: A3544

The baluster-shaped jug painted in blue, black, red and green with swaying carnations, tulips and dotted stems. A similar band of carnations and tulips swaying in the opposite direction around the neck. For a similar jug, see Hulya Bilgi: Dance of Fire, Iznik Tiles in the Sadberk Hanım Museum and Omer M Koc Collections, no 146.