

A M I R M O H T A S H E M I

Mexican Tortoiseshell and Mother-of-Pearl Box

Possibly Guadalajara, Mexico, 18th century

13cm high, 20.8cm wide, 10.6cm deep

Stock no.: A4047

The tortoiseshell veneered box is of rectangular form on a wooden carcass; the inside of the box is painted in red. The bevelled cover and body with inlaid mother-of-pearl florets, diamond, circular and star-shaped rosettes with animals including birds and dogs throughout. On the front of the box, a double-headed eagle is depicted with a crown above flanked by a lion and a unicorn.